Dear Community Partner,

The 10th Annual ACE Awards (Athletes with Character and Ethics) is presented by the Character and Ethics Project. The annual event celebrates and promotes sportsmanship and character among students and coaches in the Glendale Unified School District and Glendale Community College. This year, the ACE Awards will take place on Friday, May 3, 2019 at 4:30pm in the Glendale City Council Chambers.

As in the past seven years, awards will be presented in a variety of categories including: Male Athlete of the Year, Female Athlete of the Year, Spirit Award (individual or team), Coach of the Year and Organization of the Year from Crescenta Valley High School, Hoover High School, Glendale High School and Glendale Community College. The awards symbolize sportsmanship, positive attitude, citizenship, and leadership both on and off the field.

We are hopeful that you will join us in supporting this impressive event and these amazing and inspirational honorees by becoming an event sponsor. You will find the information for the sponsorship attached. Please note that there are limited opportunities to be a Presenting Sponsor so please respond quickly.

If you have any questions regarding the ACE Awards or the various opportunities available to support this event, please feel free to contact me at ncrowe@glendalearts.org.

Sincerely,

Nina Crowe
Board Member
